Dealing with Covid? Trying to get your performance career back together?

Mental health for musicians during a pandemic

with Dr. Shara Sand

The pandemic has caused unprecedented stress in the lives of musicians and creative artists. But you can learn effective and helpful ways to feel better and regain control of your mental health and creative life.

Dr. Shara Sand is a member of Local 802 and an experienced therapist who has worked with musicians and other creative artists for many years. She has worked with members of the New York Philharmonic and Metropolitan Opera Young Artists Program as well as with faculty members from Juilliard, Manhattan School of Music and Mannes College of Music.

You can start to make changes now to feel more confident and in control of your life. I offer a wide-range of help, and here is a sample:

- Managing the needs for artistic satisfaction, financial stability and a viable personal life while sustaining a career as an artist
- Group work with chamber music ensembles to address relational conflicts that may be interfering with artistic performance.
- Issues relating to sexual orientation, sexual identity, gender identity, coming out, and establishing a positive identity.
- Life stage issues: dating, partnering, becoming a parent (or not!), and taking care of your own parents
- Living with a chronic illness (including HIV/AIDS), and the impact it has on one's friends and family.
- Dealing with depression, social phobias, low self-esteem and life dissatisfaction, as well as more serious problems of self-mutilation or suicidal feelings.

START YOUR SELF-IMPROVEMENT NOW: WHY DELAY ANY LONGER?

PETER ROSENSTEIN, D.M.D., P.C.

DURING A PANDEMIC, TAKING CARE OF YOUR TEETH IS AN ESSENTIAL SERVICE TO YOUR HEALTH!

Twenty years ago, Dr. Peter Rosenstein, 64, a New York City Dentist, began taking trumpet lessons. He also attended music school in Cuba. He now plays in various Latin and Jazz ensembles and also on Sundays for St. Cecilia at a Spanish Mass. In the meantime he has created a small music museum in his dental operatory featuring, among other things, autographed trumpets by Herb Alpert and Wynton Marsalis. Being a trumpet player, has also given Dr. Rosenstein insight into the special dental concerns of other brass and woodwind players. Even the slightest change in the dentition can affect the embouchure and therefore the ability to play and the sound produced. As a result, he has treated numerous musicians over the years.

Kaleidoscope Sound opened its doors over 20 years ago to serve the greater New York music community. We have worked hard and are proud to have become a premier music recording studio, supporting the art and sound of New York's finest musicians. Who knew we would be celebrating 20 years of great music by re-opening? Yes, this is what we are doing!

After careful research, implementing strict cleaning and UV equipment sterilization protocol, following recommendations from both the Audio Engineering Society and Local 802, we are pleased to announce August 15, 2020, as our official "Re-Opening." Covid-19 has impacted us all personally, professionally, and for some, so much more. We are happy to be able to get back to what we love and do, and in a responsible way.

We look forward to helping you with your music or video project. Please let us know if you are an 802 musician, and you will receive a 20% discount during these "Covid Times."

Let's be smart, be careful, and make something great together!

Please see our website at kaleidoscopesound.com for further information.
Please call Randy at (201) 223-2868 for scheduling and information.
We look forward to the opportunity to work with you on your music.
