- ~~(b) No officer shall be subject to charges because of any order, ruling or official action he or she may have taken from which an appeal is available under these By laws or the Constitution and By laws of the American Federation of Musicians, such appeals to include appeal to the International Executive Board of the AFM or to the AFM convention, if applicable.~~
- ~~(c) Nothing herein contained shall exempt any officer from charges of malfeasance, such exemption being expressly limited to official actions from which appeal is available and malfeasance is not explicitly charged.~~
- ~~(d) Malfeasance shall be defined as an Officer's dereliction of his/her duties or an Officer's violation of any provision of the Constitution and By laws of Local 802, that causes harm to any member of the Local or to Local 802 itself.~~

Such charges shall be processed in accordance with this Section.~~
- ~~(f) Charges against officers must be in writing and filed with the Recording Vice President within sixty (60) days of the time the complainant first became aware, or reasonably should have been aware, of the alleged offense(s). The charges shall contain the same information required by Section I of this Article. The Recording Vice President shall serve said charges upon the accused within seven (7) business days after receipt thereof. The Recording Vice President shall schedule a membership meeting to hear the charges at the earliest possible date for which notice of the meeting can be published in the Official Journal at least thirty (30) days following publication of the notice.~~
- ~~(g) Charges against officers shall be the first order of business at said membership meeting, unless the meeting is a By-law meeting, in which case said charges shall be considered upon conclusion of consideration of the resolutions submitted therefore. However, the members present may vote to place the charges first on the agenda.~~

- ~~(h) Any charges against officers placed on the agenda of a membership meeting shall first be read at — such meeting by the complainant or by another member whom the complainant has designated as his or her representative. After the complainant's presentation, a motion may be accepted to dismiss the charge on grounds that the allegation of malfeasance is vague or poorly defined, or that the alleged act is too trivial to warrant charges, or that the alleged act is not, in fact, malfeasance or that no evidence exists to support the charge. In the last case the plaintiff may defend his/her charge by indicating to the meeting the type of evidence (i.e. documents, witnesses or other) upon which the charge is based. If no such replacement is available, the Trial Committee shall elect a replacement by majority vote. No officer of the Local or any complainant or witness for or against the accused shall be eligible to make or receive a nomination for, or to serve on, such Trial Committee.~~
- ~~(j) It shall be a violation of these By-laws for a member to misrepresent the evidence that is claimed to be the basis for charges against any member. If a representation is made by the plaintiff that certain evidence is in his or her possession and/or witnesses exist to corroborate the charge, and it is subsequently found that this representation was false and such evidence did not in fact exist, then the plaintiff shall be deemed in violation of this By-law and shall be subject to charges.~~
- ~~(k) The Trial Committee shall conduct a procedural review of the charges before it. A charge shall be considered improper and shall not be processed if it is found by the Trial Committee that:~~
- ~~— 1. the charge(s) does/do not state the exact nature of the alleged offense;~~
 - ~~— 2. the charge(s) is/are untimely; or~~
 - ~~— 3. the charge(s) involve(s) a question which should be decided by a judicial or administrative body — outside the Local.~~
- ~~(l) If the Trial Committee, after due deliberation, finds the defendant to be innocent of the charges, or dismisses the charges under (k) above, then, this verdict will become final with the delivery of its report to the Recording Vice President. Such verdict shall be published in the next appearing Official Journal. Additionally, such verdict of innocence shall be read at~~

~~the next membership meeting following the Trial Committee's decision. The charging party shall have the right to appeal such finding to the International Executive Board.~~

- ~~(m) If the Trial Committee finds the defendant guilty, then its report shall be read at the next membership meeting to convene following the delivery of its verdict to the Recording Vice President, and to the accused. If a special membership meeting can be scheduled on an earlier date with at least 30 days notice in the Official Journal, such a meeting shall be scheduled by the Recording Vice President. This report may reflect the degree of guilt and questions of malice and/or intent. However, a verdict of guilt may become effective only upon approval by a two-thirds (2/3) secret ballot vote of the members voting at the membership meeting. If such verdict is not approved by two-thirds (2/3) vote, the charges shall be dismissed and no further action may be taken.~~

~~If the Trial Committee finds the defendant guilty, it shall also recommend one of the following penalties:~~

- ~~(1) — Reprimand.~~
- ~~(2) — Removal from office and ineligibility to hold elected or appointed office for a period of two (2) years.~~
- ~~(3) — Removal from office and ineligibility to hold elected or appointed office for a period of five (5) years.~~
- ~~(4) — Removal from office, termination of membership for a specified period, and ineligibility to hold elected or appointed office in the Local in the future.~~
- ~~(5) — Removal from office, expulsion from membership and ineligibility for any future readmission to membership.~~

- ~~(n) If the membership approves the verdict of guilt (including the recommended penalty), then such verdict and penalty shall be deemed final, subject only to appeal to the AFM.~~

- ~~(o) The accused, if found guilty, shall have the right to appeal the decision to the International Executive Board of the American Federation of Musicians in accordance both with its Constitution and Bylaws and Article V herein. If the penalty being appealed provides for removal from office, then the officer shall be suspended without pay pending the outcome of the appeal. (3) In the event that the meeting to which a resolution of appeal has been submitted is a meeting to which bylaw resolution(s) has/have been submitted, the bylaw resolutions shall be considered first unless the membership shall decide otherwise.
